No content from this website may be copied, reproduced, modified, republished, distributed, transmitted, displayed or used for commercial purposes without prior written permission from Dr Raoul Erasmus, except where permitted by law.

2. Protection of Personal Information (POPIA)

Dr Raoul Erasmus and the medical practice are committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of patients and website users in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA) and other applicable South African legislation.

Personal information submitted through this website, including information provided through contact forms, appointment requests or other electronic communications, will be collected and processed only for legitimate purposes relating to the medical practice, including responding to enquiries, arranging appointments, providing healthcare services, practice administration, billing and medical-aid processes, and complying with applicable legal and professional obligations.

Reasonable technical and organisational measures are implemented to safeguard personal information against loss, unauthorised access, interference, modification, disclosure or destruction.

Personal information will not be sold or disclosed to third parties except where necessary for the provision or administration of healthcare services, where required or permitted by law, where disclosure is required to medical schemes, hospitals, healthcare professionals or authorised service providers, or where appropriate consent has been obtained.

Where third-party service providers process personal information on behalf of the practice, reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that such information is handled securely and in accordance with applicable privacy requirements.

3. Medical Information & Confidentiality

Information provided on this website is intended for general informational purposes only and does not constitute individual medical advice, diagnosis or treatment.

Submitting information through this website does not, by itself, establish a doctor-patient relationship. Patients requiring medical advice should consult Dr Raoul Erasmus or another appropriately qualified healthcare professional directly.

Users are advised not to submit unnecessary sensitive medical or personal information through ordinary website contact forms or unsecured email communications.
